

- Ability and willingness to work in a dedicated team with an international, intercultural and interdisciplinary background from Ethiopia and Germany
- Ability to work independently in challenging environmental and logistic conditions
- Willingness to travel to Adama and Fantale district in East Shewa zone, and to Gomole, Yabelo and Elwaye districts in Borana zone
- Required to complete the course work and ready to deploy to the field by April 01, 2025

For further information, please contact Dr. Galgalo Dika (study details) or PD Dr. Regina Roessler (project details), Emails: regina.roessler@uni-kassel.de and galgalodiqa@gmail.com,

5. Our Offer

As a scholarship holder of the SUSCAMI project

- A monthly stipend for conduction of MSc thesis for a period of 12 months, starting April 01, 2025, covered by Borana University
- A monthly lump sum to cover mobility / accommodation and other field work expenses during data collection in Borana and East Shewa zone (3+3 months)
- You will be part of an interdisciplinary team with a good and collegial working atmosphere, you will have the opportunity to participate in professional and interdisciplinary further education measures, and have the possibility of publishing scientific paper(s) in peer-reviewed international journals.

6. How to Apply

Interested candidates should send their application in ONE PDF file, being composed of a cover letter, Curriculum Vitae, academic credentials, copy of passports/ ID cards biometric page and three reference persons including the last employer. Applications should be sent by E-mail to the following addresses: galgalodiqa@gmail.com, with subject line “SUSCAMI@MSc”

Closing date for applications will be on 25th December 2024. Due to the large number of applications, we expect to receive, only successful candidates who meet the required experience & qualifications for this position will be contacted.

